

Joint AEP / APA Learning Event

March 2009 PROGRAM

FREE LEARNING EVENT!

Determining Impact Significance and Cumulative Impacts under the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA)

WHEN: Monday, March 2, 2009. 1:00 to 2:00 pm.

Note this is not a lunch event. In the interest of time, food will not be served so please eat prior to arrival. The event will start promptly at 1pm so arrive on time.*

Attendance is on a first come, first served basis as space is limited so please RSVP early.*

WHERE: Oakland City Hall
1 Frank Ogawa Plaza, Oakland, CA
Hearing Room 3 (first floor)
From 12th BART Station - 14th and Broadway, Downtown Oakland

WHAT: Please join the Bay Area Chapters of the Association of Environmental Professionals and the American Planning Association for a FREE learning event. Gary Jakobs will discuss technical requirements and practice considerations in determining impact significance and cumulative impacts. Wendy Copeland will talk about practical pointers associated with impact determination when preparing EIRs and Negative Declarations.

WHO: Gary Jakobs, AICP is a Principal in EDAW's Sacramento office. Further, he leads the firm's CEQA/NEPA practice. Gary has over 25 years of experience in the practice of CEQA and NEPA and has worked on general and specific plans, mixed use development, major infrastructure, and policy development. He regularly instructs other professionals on CEQA, NEPA, climate change, and endangered species act compliance. He is the curriculum director for AEP's Advanced CEQA Workshop.

Wendy Copeland is an Associate in EDAW's Sacramento office. She has 10 years of experienced preparing and managing EIRs and other environmental documents. She specializes in large scale development projects and wastewater treatment plants.

Space is limited. PLEASE RSVP by Monday, February 23rd by visiting www.sfbayaep.org or clicking <http://sfbayaep.org/mar022009rsvp.php>. AICP Credits may be applied for. For questions, contact Leslie Garlinghouse at leslie.garlinghouse@ch2m.com.